

RULES:

- 1) All entries must be from non-commercial/professional brewers
- 2) All entrants must be 21 years or older
- 3) Beers must be entered under the name of the brewer
- 4) Cost: $5 for each beer entered (make checks payable to Hangar 24 Craft Brewery)
- 5) Send 2 12 oz. bottles per entry (one for first round and one for best of show round)
- 6) No identifying marks on any bottles, including caps
- 7) Each bottle needs bottle ID form attached by rubber band (see pdf on website)
- 8) Each entry needs entry form filled out (see pdf on website)
- 9) Entries accepted Apr. 23 – May 15, all other entries may be disqualified
- 10) Drop off at locations listed or mail to H24
- 11) Unlimited entries per brewer, but only 1 per style sub-category
- 12) No entries will be returned
- 13) Beers will be judged based on BJCP Guidelines for beer (sorry, no mead, cider or sake)
- 14) Special ingredients need to be disclosed for categories 6D, 16E, 17F, 20, 21, 22B, 23, 25C, 27E, 28B, 28D
- 15) H24 reserves right to combine categories based on number of entrants in order to improve competition
- 16) Event volunteers are welcome to enter competition
- 17) Grand prize winner must meet GABF requirements for Pro-Am competition (see link on site)
- 18) Winner must be a member of the AHA (American Homebrewers Association) in order to enter beer into GABF. You do not need to be a member to enter this competition, but your beer cannot be produced unless you are.
- 19) If best-in-show winner does not meet GABF requirements, runner-up beer will be brewed
- 20) Winning recipe may be changed slightly to accommodate production on H24's system

